Dedicated to John Devine

The Class Of 2017 would like to honor John Devine with the Dedication of this yearbook. He is not only recognized for his outstanding work as Longmeadow High School's Clinical Social Worker but as a tremendous coach to the boys and girls indoor track and field team and the girls outdoor team. This year marks John Devine's 35th year serving as a Clinical Social Worker in outpatient settings and here at the Longmeadow High.

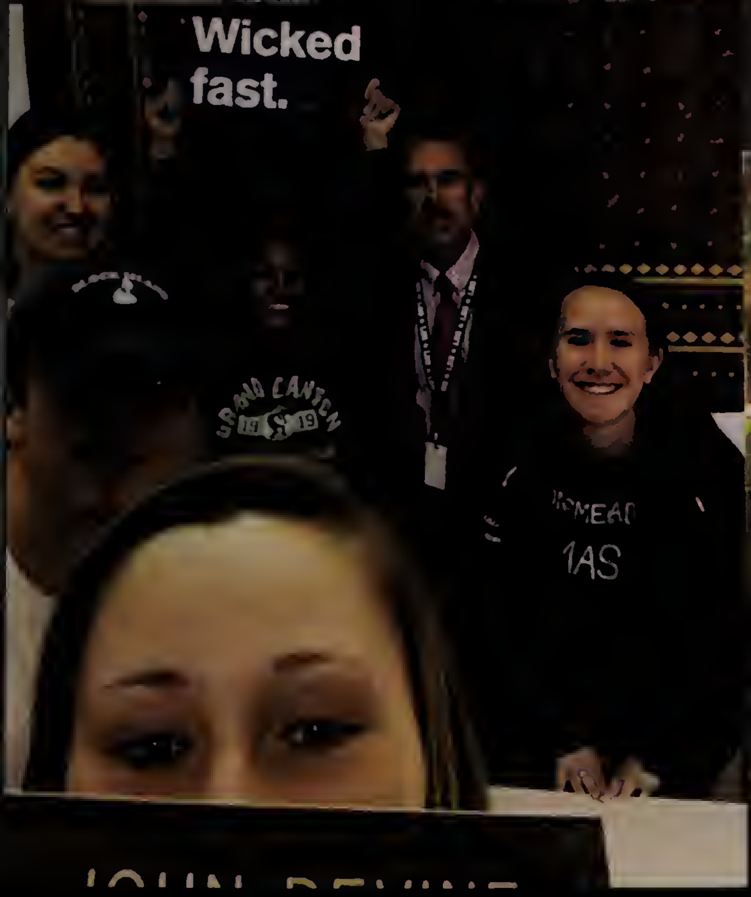
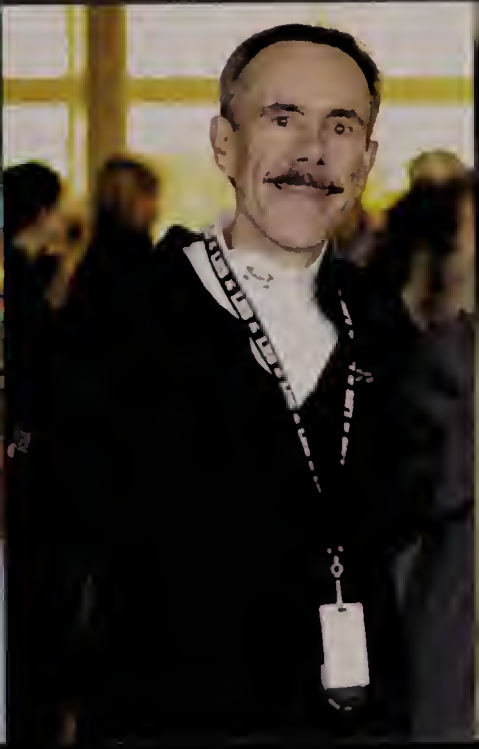
Coach Devine,
Thank you for four wonderful years as our track coach. Not only have you been our coach but our mentor and friend as well. Thank you for helping us grow as athletes and individuals throughout our time at LHS. We appreciate all the effort you have put into making every season a special one. We will never forget the memories we have made with you. From freshman year to graduation day, you have been by our side through it all and to reiterate, we can't thank you enough.
Love,
Emily Brown, Haley Daigneault, Carlin Joyal, Rachael Kraez, and Fiona Noonan





Congratulations to the Class of 2017 as you are the first, four-year class to attend the new Longmeadow High School. My name is Bobby Barkett, together with Peter Greenberg, we co-chaired the Longmeadow School Building Committee. As past graduates of Longmeadow High School ourselves, we held our stewardship of this educational space dearly. Our goal was to deliver a high school worthy of our faculty, administration, and its students. We are proud of the outcome - a 21st century building with flexible learning spaces fulfilling its ultimate mission, to educate and prepare students in their future endeavors.

While the Class of 2017 was just beginning Kindergarten in 2004, the Longmeadow School Committee embarked on the task to build a new High School. With the commissioning of a facility study, we explored the physical conditions of the former building identifying the challenges including structure insufficiencies, code compliance and ultimately, the delivery of education.

In 2010 the Town of Longmeadow voted to approve the construction of this new facility. Construction of the new high school commenced in the fall of 2011 as your class entered the 7th grade. Students entered the new Longmeadow High School building in February of 2012 and finally, in September of 2013, the NEW Longmeadow High School, was finished in its entirety, and welcomed you the Class of 2017.

The overall site is comprised of 180,000 square feet of new construction and approximately 50,000 square feet of renovated space. To top it off, just this past August, we were honored that the MSBA approved your new High School as a Model school for other Massachusetts cities and towns to copy, reinforcing our blueprint for educational success.

The construction of a school is truly a labor of love. It begins with a vision and a commitment to excellence. As Longmeadow High School graduates, myself, Peter, and the committee were focused on creating a legacy for generations to come. All in all, the project took over 12 years to complete. Our message to the Class of 2017 and all the future classes of our new high school is to follow your dreams - be persistent - be the person you want to be despite criticism - achieve more than you did yesterday - live in the moment and build something for future generations, in the spirit of paying it forward.

Sincerely, your Longmeadow School Building Committee Co-Chairs,
Bobby Barkett '83 and Peter Greenberg '75

BY: JORDAN KE '17

FEATURES EDITOR

Longmeadow's new superintendent of schools, Mr. Marty O'Shea, started work this summer on July 1st. Mr. O'Shea is formerly a Longmeadow teacher and administrator. The Jet Jotter is happy to welcome Mr. O'Shea back to the Longmeadow Public Schools and wish him good luck in this new educational endeavor

Jordan: Is there anything you would like to share about your educational and personal background?
Mr. O'Shea: "I grew up in Springfield and attended Cathedral High School. I then went on to Stonehill College as pal Berte. Although I mi

I continually want to gro
the community and schoo grow."

J: What do you miss ab teacher?
Mr. O'Shea: "To this day I
ing. I enjoyed it thoroughly pace, the energy, the enth curiosity of students. I al more direct involvement

Nicholas Griswold Smith

We blinked and this happened
You're a senior this year
We tried to slow down the moments
This day we did fear
For our youngest will leave
There's new adventures to find
You'll begin a new chapter Leaving high school behind
We've watched you in awe, living life with such zest
One of your many qualities that we love the best
Your life's full of motion, on the field, in the pool
You're kind and respectful, and totally cool!
Live your life to its fullest
Go forth with no fear
And know that we LOVE you Whether you're far or you're near Thank you for making our adventures so grand You've made our lives richer, much better than planned!
You're one of a kind, the rarest of gems
We'll miss you, our Noop
Dad, Mom and Miss Em

Emma and Nick

The year was '99, born March and then May
These two became friends just 3 houses away
Maple Road was the start where "The Village" began Six girls and a boy to start off this clan
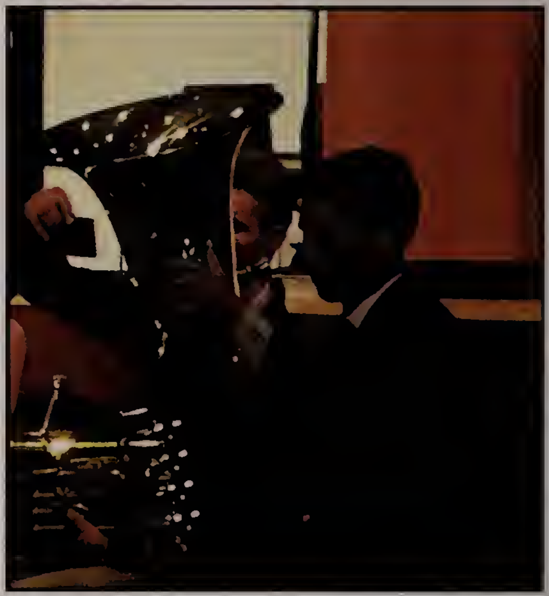
There were playdates and ripsticks and days at the pool
Friday night pizza and carpools to school
But here we are now in June '17
Not toddlers, but "buds" in the graduate scene
Good luck to you both as your next chapter begins
May you always remain the best-est of friends!



Billy Hiser

Congratulations on all you have accomplished!
Good luck on all that is to come!
Love Mom, Dad, Christopher & Joseph
